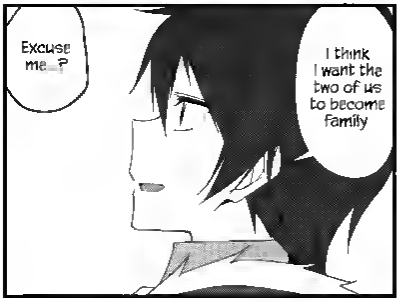
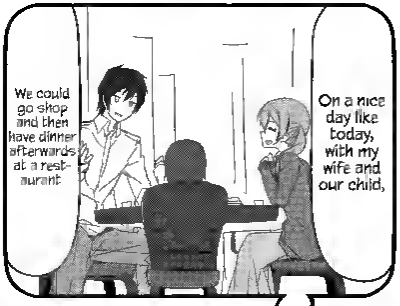
Have you given some thought to the future you will have with that cute, young lady?
I certainly have, of course.
Exactly what do you have in mind?

Prince.



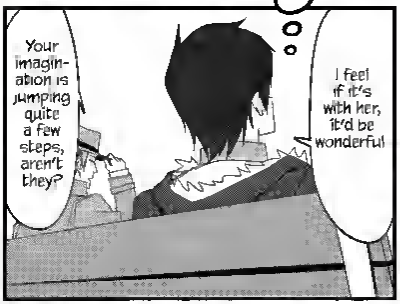
I think I want the two of us to become family
Excuse me...?

I apologize for disturbing you during your break. May I have a moment of your time?
Ah, yes, by all means.



On a nice day like today, with my wife and our child,
We could go shop and then have dinner afterwards at a restaurant

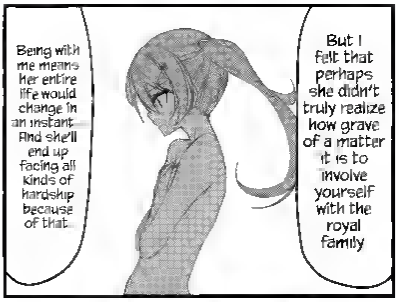
...Um—
Regarding the young lady you are with ..
Ah, yes?



I feel if it's with her, it'd be wonderful
Your imagination is jumping quite a few steps, aren't they?

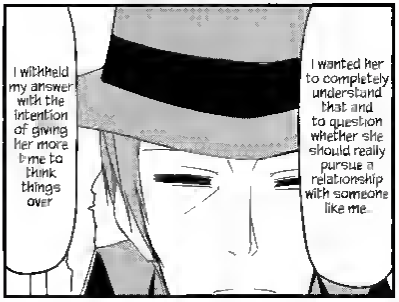
It seems like she had confessed her love to you
THAT'S RATHER ABRUPT OF YOU.

I just went and told him...
I understand very well.
Yes.



Being with me means her entire life would change in an instant. And she'll end up facing all kinds of hardship because of that.
But I felt that perhaps she didn't truly realize how grave of a matter it is to involve yourself with the royal family

Huh?
Dear me, I beg your pardon, but I will be taking my leave now



I withheld my answer with the intention of giving her more time to think things over
I wanted her to completely understand that and to question whether she should really pursue a relationship with someone like me.

Ah, yes, I will—
Please treasure that girl dearly.

Hardship accompanies anyone in life, regardless of standing. In that case, what I need to do hasn't changed.
But it made me realize that I was the one who didn't have a complete understanding of the situation.

That wasn't for an interview?

I SEE.
ALL I NEED TO DO IS JUST PROTECT HER.

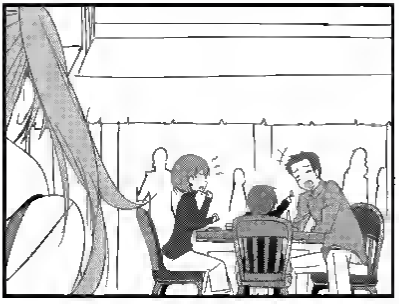
This town is full of people who come here because they love your family, right?
That's why I feel it's a place filled with people you can come to love.



My family moves frequently because of work, so I was afraid of getting closer to others more than I needed to be
After all, I'm just going to end up moving again even though we finally became friends...

That's so nice...

But eight years ago,
The one year I spent in this town changed me

I was able to find a person outside of my family that I could treasure.
OKAY, CUT!!

Satou, do you like this town?
Eh!? Oh! This town!? I-I do a lot, yes!?

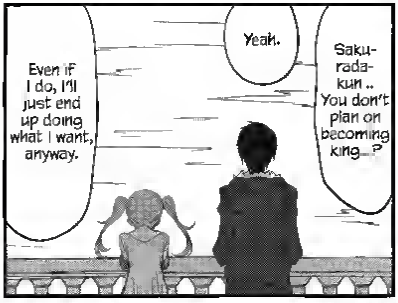
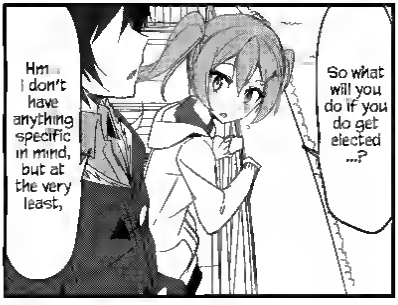
Were you nervous today during the filming?
I-I was.
But your family has to deal with that everyday, huh.

This is...
It's where we make our closing address.



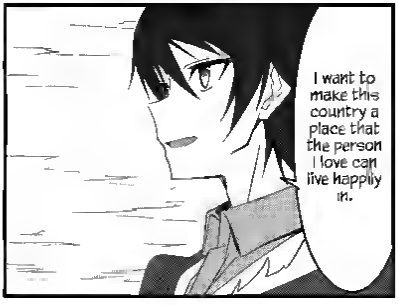
Saku-rada-kun.. You don't plan on becoming king...?
Yeah.
Even if I do, I'll just end up doing what I want, anyway.

During my parents' generation, the royal family lived in this castle
Though it looks like my father still comes here.



So what will you do if you do get elected ...?
Hm... I don't have anything specific in mind, but at the very least,

W-Won't they get angry at us for barging in like this?
We'll be fine.



I want to make this country a place that the person I love can live happily in.

AS LONG AS THEY DON'T FIND OUT.
